

IWWAGE- ISLE FELLOWSHIPS FOR YOUNG WOMEN RESEARCHERS

Indian Society of Labour Economics (ISLE), to promote Young Women Leadership in Economics and Finance, will sponsor five fellowships for select young women scholars aged 35 years or below pursuing advanced degrees in Economics, Political Science, Gender, Development Studies, Public Policy, and Public Finance.

Eligibility Criteria

- Women between the age of 25 to 35 enrolled in a PhD program
- Young scholars within three years of completing their PhD.
- Young women from the underprivileged sections of population in terms of remote geographies, and other layers of marginalization will be given preference for this scholarship

This fellowship, aligned with IWWAGE's objectives for women's economic empowerment, will be granted to paper presenters whose work explores IWWAGE's thematic areas: women's economic empowerment, the care economy, and the intersection of gender, health, and climate change.

The fellowship will cover:

- Travel expenses.
- Accommodation costs.
- Conference registration fees.
- ISLE Life Membership fees

We invite women scholars to apply for the fellowships by submitting their papers through the conference portal and completing the Google Form to register for the fellowship.
